

Nothing to gain

By Olivia, 6th grade

Child labor is bad.
Hurt bones,
Hurt skin,
Hurt hearts,
Sweatshops and pain.
Nothing to gain
But tears.

Child Labor is bad.
Beatings whips cracking,
Crying,
Sweatshops and pain.
Nothing to gain
But blood.

Child Labor is bad.
Rugs, shoes and
Soccer balls, but not to Play with.
Only to hurt them
Sweatshops and pain
Nothing to gain
But illness and disease.

Child labor is bad.
Fields with millions,
Stone quarries and brick kilns with thousands,
Factories with hundreds,
Little babies cry
Sweatshops and pain
Nothing to gain
But hate.

Child labor is bad.
No parents,
Kidnapped children,
Eyes filled with tears.
Sweatshops and pain
Nothing to gain
But love.
No. There is no love in child labor.
They need love.

These children need education and love.

They need families and friends to help them get out of child labor.
